Melvin W.I. Sept. Meeting

The September meeting of the Melvin W.I. was held Sept. 8 at the home of Mrs. E. Krebs. Roll call was a laundry hint.

A letter was read from Miss M. Dixon, home economist at Red Deer, and it was decided to ask her to attend the November meeting and speak on "Remakes Can Be Fun."

Mrs. Ross Youngs, home economics convener, discussed short cuts in "Harvest Cookery," giving ideas on things which could be prepared in advance.

Miss Ruth Johnston chose a short article on the beginning of the Women's Institute in Canada, which was read by Mrs. G. Youngs.

Instead of the "bit of fun" Mrs. H. Fischer presented a short article entitled "Beware of the 'Bait Ad' Gyp." A jar of home-made butter was raffled, the lucky winner being Mrs. H. Fischer.

CPR Had First Domes

A long forgotten genius in the Canadian Pacific Railway's motive power and rolling stock department came up with an idea at the turn of the 20th century that blossomed into additional passenger revenue for rail lines throughout the continent.

It was the first "dome" car to be used on railway lines and was designed to give passengers a bird's eye view of Canada's spectacular Rocky Mountain scenery.

Today the idea has spread throughout the world, particularly in the United States where railway dome cars are a feature of several lines.

In a recent $18,000,000 order for 155 new stainless steel cars, the C.P.R. included 38 scenic dome cars, such as the one shown above in top picture, which will give travellers an unmatched view of the country's scenery from coast to coast.

The cars will be placed in service on transcontinental trains next year. Although the designer of the dome car, shown in bottom picture above, remains unknown, he gave Canada's first transcontinental rail line a head start in railway design. In July, 1902, the world's first dome car rolled out of the shops and into service.

In it, railway passengers could sit in revolving parlor car chairs or reversible seats and have a clear view of Canada's scenery bit and three others, with modern improvements, were put into service. But the C.P.R.'s unknown designer had outstripped his era.

Jocko, the pet porcupine of the Moncey family, is quite a character. He seems to prefer staying with them to living in the woods and even swims the river to get to him.

He stands up on his hind legs and walks around. He is very gentle and never offers to hurt any of them, even during rough play.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MRS. EVA BLAIN

A pleasant afternoon was spent Friday when a surprise birthday party was held in honor of Mrs. Eva Blain at the home of Mrs. Lorne Clayton. Sixteen friends and neighbors were present.

Mrs. Roach presented Eva with a corsage and gift of china on behalf of those present. Contest winners were Mrs. N. Gill and Mrs. J. Dick. A delicious lunch was served at which Mrs. E. Blain poured the tea, and the birthday cake, made by Mrs. J. A. Snyder, was enjoyed by all. Servitors were Mrs. T. Morton and Mrs. B. Prevost.

GOLF NOTES

Mrs. Bert Prevost has very kindly offered her home this Friday for the final meeting of the Ladies' Golf Club. All lady members, regardless of whether they have played golf this season, are cordially invited.

Entertainment for the evening is in the hands of Mrs. George Thring, Mrs. Fred Evans and Mrs. R. McKenzie. Mrs. Fay McNicholl and Mrs. B. Dawkins are in charge of prizes in connection with the golf tournament.

Mrs. Wm. McFarquhar will be in charge of refreshments. The usual charge of ten cents for tea will prevail. So, lady golfers, you are expected to be there and the "tee off" time is 8:30 p.m.

Anyone who lives in that idea about an invasion from Mars, flying saucers and Gremlins, might well have thought the time had come if they happened to wander last night after dark last Friday evening. Garbage cans were rattling, the swings at the school ground were being inspected, the C.P.R. station was under scrutiny, and there was even activity on the golf course. (Even the best of us can't play golf after dark, or can we?) This invasion, if such it can be called, was carried out with not too much secrecy as the "things" carried a fair amount of talking. That last part gave them away.

It turned out it was just the members of the Ladies' Golf Club out on a treasure hunt, which they finally found in the shrubbery at the door of our local bank manager (was it a resident or else?)

(Editor's note: This item was not written by a member of the above organization. No names are mentioned but we could give you a couple who nearly ended up with a dose of buckshot — you know where. However it was a real evening of fun for a very active club and I, for one, was happy to see my car in one piece the next morning.)

This year's exhibit will contain around 35 to 40 pictures in pastel, oils and pen and ink, and exhibitors are Mrs. C. Rinchart and Mrs. Joyce Mullen of Didsbury, Mrs. S. W. Miller and Mrs. Bertha Aday of Olds and Mrs. Jessie (McCoy) Altk of Peace River.

Featured in this year's exhibit will be several oil paintings by Mr. J. Parrish of Salt Lake City, Utah. Mr. Parrish has spent some time painting local scenes as well as other views of Alberta landscape. He is the father of Mrs. Roger Barrett of Didsbury.

The auxiliary will again raffie a picture which has been donated to them, to raise funds for their organization, and is on display in the window of Folkmann's Clothing store. Tickets may be obtained from auxiliary members. The draw for the picture will be made at the conclusion of the tea and exhibit.

DOUBLE RING CEREMONY IN UNITED MISSIONARY CHURCH
Two tall candelabra with golden candles and floral pieces of large chrysanthemums and autumn foliage, formed the background for the double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. Ray Shantz, when Jeanette Marie Neufeld, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Neufeld of Didsbury, exchanged vows with Charles Stanley Cox, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Cox of Calgary, on Friday, Sept. 18, at 6:30 p.m., in the United Missionary Church here.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in a floor-length model of white satin with panels of lace and lace sleeves, and bodice encrusted with rhinestones. Her finger-length veil hung freely from a coronet of braided satin and she wore an opal pendant, a gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis centred with a large orchid.

Mrs. Gordon Neufeld, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor in a bouffant floor-length gown of rust velvet. She carried an evening bag with a single chrysanthemum. The bridesmaids, Margaret Dyck and Shirley Shaw of Calgary, wore identical gowns of floor-length aqua velvet and carried muffs of the same material and color with crescents of baby mums.

Little Sharon Neufeld, niece of the bride, was charming in a full skirted white velvet frock and preceded the bride gracefully, as she carried a basket of baby mums, in the wedding procession.

Keith Cox attended his brother as groomsmen and the ushers were Glenn Neufeld and Kenneth Cox, who also were attendants in the ceremony.

The Youth Choir of United Missionary Church, robed in black gowns and white stoles, sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd" before the bride procession entered. They were directed by Mr. Neil B. Neufeld. During the signing of the register Amos Neufeld sang "I'll Walk Beside You." Helen Swaim played the wedding music.

A reception was held in the dining room of Mountain View Bible College. The mothers of the bride and groom were similarly crowned in navy dresses with rose hats and accessories. They received some 90 guests who sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast prepared by Miss Sara Zook. During the meal, Rev. William Cox, brother of the groom, acted as master of ceremonies.

Margaret Dyck and Shirley Shaw sang during the course of the evening and Mr. Harvey Burgess spoke words of appreciation for the interest that the bride had always taken in the work of the church.

The groom responded and very fittingly spoke of the prospects for their lives in the work which they were about to enter.

The happy couple left for a brief honeymoon, after which they will take up residence on James River, as pastors of the United Missionary Church there. For going-away Mrs. Cox wore a nylon tressed teal coat style dress with matching hat and Black accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox are both graduates of Mountain View Bible College.

MRS. IRA SCOTT HOSTESS TO WESTCOTT W.A.

Field Supervisor

Weeds At Threshing: It is poor business to spend large sums of money in chemical or cultural weed control and then neglect the prevention of weed spread at harvest time. When operating the combine, the weeds that are separated from the grain should be put into grain-tight bags and disposed of later.

Every combine has equipment which allows the operator to collect the weed seeds either in a small hopper or in a weed-seed-tight bag. The seeds may then be removed from the field, ground up and fed to livestock, or destroyed by burning. In no case should the weed seeds be piled in the open where they can be scattered by birds, livestock or wind.

Those who are using threshing machines should also take precaution. See that the floors of the bundle wagons are tight, clean all equipment before moving from one setting to another, and clean up the weeds from the threshing machine.

Every operator should have as part of his equipment a good broom with stiff bristles to use in sweeping off the threshing machine, combine and bundle racks, before moving from one field to another or from one set to the next. This clean-up job can be most important in the prevention of the spread of weed seeds.

ON ITS LAST LEGS

Rastus had just been presented by his wife with his 12th child. As the proud father was escorting the doctor to the door a duck passed by.

"Whose duck is that?" asked the doctor.

"Dat ain't no duck," said Rastus, with a sigh. "Dat's the stork with its legs worn down."

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

Mr. and Mrs. J. Armstrong and Evelyn recently returned to the district from Chilliwack, B.C.

Mrs. Howarth and baby son, of Saskatchewan, have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Armstrong. Patients in the Olds hospital are Mrs. Jack Wiper and Mrs. Wilfred Spooner. We wish them both a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Mann, Mrs. Davis and son Ralph of Calgary, were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Smith.

Mrs. Stewart and family of Red Deer were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Spooner. Miss Gladys Strand has been home for a few days with a cut hand received while working at a coffee shop in Olds.

Billy Johnson is now working for Miller Brothers at Olds.

Miss Marilyn Miller returned home after working in Olds for the summer.

HAIL DAMAGE

About one million acres of crops in Alberta suffered damage from hail this season and at least $3,500,000 insurance money will be paid to cover the loss. Such are the calculations of Glen Elder, chairman of the Alberta Hail Insurance Board, which does most of the insurance, and also by private hail insurance companies.

Of course, the insurance paid, which averages $3.50 an acre, does not begin to cover the losses sustained. The average yield of wheat in the province is calculated around 23 bushels to the acre. If farmers receive only $1.50 a bushel that would mean a loss of $37,500,000. But all the acreage hailed out was not in wheat and acreages under oats and barley would bring a smaller return. It may be safely stated, however, that hail damage caused the loss of at least $30 million in Alberta this season.

The number of claims received by the hail board this year was 4,672 up to last week. This was below the record figure of 5,506 set in 1947.

Notes From D.A.

HUGH McPHAIL

Much of the grain this year will be in storage for a long time, because of high yields and low quotas.

To prevent serious losses, care must be taken in storing the grain. I have a supply of pamphlets on "Emergency Grain Storage". These should also prove useful.

Other useful leaflets that have come in recently are entitled "Profitable Pastures for Alberta." These are artistically illustrated and right to the point. They are reprints of information presented to the Alberta Dairywomen's Convention in Calgary, February, 1953, by H. B. Steffox, agronomist, forage crops Dominion Experimental Station, Lacombe.

Garbage Containers Cause Comment

Following is a letter received by The Pioneer from the medical health officer of this area pertaining to covered garbage containers. We quote:

"On several recent inspections by myself and the sanitary inspector, it has been observed that many people in the town are not using—and do not possess—covered water and fly proof refuse containers, for unburnable garbage. This is contrary to both the Town and Public Health Regulations."

Everyone is strongly urged to remedy this omission, for their own and the community's protection. In view of the ever present potential danger from flies special attention should be paid to this."

Rugby W.I. Sept. Meeting

The Rugby Women's Institute met on September 3 at the home of Mrs. Howard Krebs with 15 members present. Meeting opened with singing "The Good Old Summer Time", followed by the creed. Roll call was answered by giving ways of storing vegetables. It was decided to raffie the crib quilt among the members.

A cup and saucer was presented to a member who had been ill and a get-well card sent to one who was unable to attend. It was decided that the W.I. would help buy some dishes for Rugby Hall.

Mrs. Alex Shannon chose as her five-minute topic, "Mount Everest." Mrs. Roy McNaughton read the report of Mrs. A. Vipond on the Didsbury conference.

A contest was conducted by Mrs. Bruce Nelson for the "bit of fun." The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. Krebs with the roll call to be a collection of vegetables for the Red Cross hospital and a tea towel for Rugby hall. The tea draw was won by Mrs. Alex Shannon.

RUGBY BLUEBELLS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The Rugby Bluebells met recently at the Little Red Deer River with attendance of seven girls and three mothers. Each girl came dressed as a hobo and Deylia Byrt and June Blain were chosen as the best tramps.

New officers for the next year were elected: president, Lila Blain; vice-president, Deylia Byrt; secretary-treasurer, Lillian Hosgood. Next year's projects were outlined and two new members, Sylvia Erickson and Beverly Sutherland joined the club.

Mrs. O. Blain, supervisor, arranged a marshmallow roast to end the day's activities.

HOT FOOT

There are electrically-heated men's socks now which keep feet at normal body temperature without causing perspiration. A battery is worn on the belt and insulated connecting wires run along each leg under clothing. Ideal for hunters, football and hockey fans.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"Reality" is the title of the Lesson-Sermon at Christian Science churches on Sunday, and these are some of the uplifting passages, from the Bible: "Acquaint now thyself with Him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee." (Job: 22:21). And from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "There is no error in Science, and our lives must be governed by reality in order to be in harmony with God, the divine Principle of all being." (191: 3-5).

YOUNG DIDSBURY PATIENT WINS FOOTBALL

Frank Chaffin, a young patient from Didsbury now in the Alberta Red Cross Crippled Children's hospital, was one of the happiest children in Calgary Friday when he won an autographed football presented by members of the Calgary Stampede's football team.

The ball, with which the Stamps won the league opener in Regina, was drawn for by the patients who had their names in a tray. Coach Bob Snyder pulled out Frank's name, after which members of the team visited the boy in his ward.

Players who accompanied the coach included Frankie Albert, Keith Spait, Lou Rymkus and Sugarfoot Anderson.

Following the presentation the football players toured the hospital to visit with the patients and sign numerous autographs.

PRICE RISE FORECAST FOR FARM IMPLEMENTS

An increase in the price of farm implements may be expected in the next six months. That forecast was made by one of the top officials of the International Harvester of Canada corporation while on a visit to Alberta. He said the increase in wages of employees and an increase in the price of raw materials made the further advance in implement prices imperative.

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(Last Week)

We are glad to welcome back the little folks of Mrs. Booker's class.
The grounds are again active with happy, care-free children and we trust that Mrs. Booker and her "family" will be happy among us
this winter.

During the last week a number of ladies volunteered their services to clean and scrub classrooms and dormitory rooms at the College. The large main building has yet to be done and no doubt others will come to help with that cleaning as soon as they are able. Our appreciation to all those who worked so willingly to make ready for the coming winter of school.

The ladies of the United Missionary Church, and other friends, met in the College dining hall to present Miss Jeanette Neufeld with their gifts and best wishes upon the eve of her wedding. Mrs. Joanne Neufeld and Mrs. Joyce Taylor had charge of the program. Mrs. Harold Oak was a gracious luncheon hostess. Misses Betty and Florence Reist had charge of the shower gifts, while Mrs. Ray Shantz, the pastor's wife, presented them, assuring the bride-to-be of the best wishes of all who know her.

Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Taylor were guests in the Swalm home at Bergen on Sunday. Mrs. Taylor spoke at the morning service.

Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Eby and family went to Sundre to attend the evening service in the McDougall Plaza Church. They assisted in a baptism service there.

Nearly 2000 books have been catalogued in the College library.
Friends all over the United Missionary Conference contributed to the library during the summer months. This has been a good addition and as the library grows year by year, students will have the privilege of further and better research as they study the Word of God.

Some of the town people have been assuring us at the College that the painting project is really worthwhile and appreciated by them. We are hoping for weather that will allow the finishing of the job before school starts.

Sept. Meeting
Lone Pine W.I.

The Lone Pine W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Harry Richardson with 16 members and three visitors present. It was decided to have Miss Dixon speak on "Color in Your Home" and Mrs. Bob Fisher tell of her visit to the W.I. conference at Toronto on October 14 or 15 at Lone Pine hall at 8 p.m. in the evening.

Bancroft and Mountain View institutes will be invited to attend and a potluck lunch will be served.
As some of the library books have been damaged it was decided that in future persons damaging or losing books would be required to pay for them.

Ladies are requested to hand in all articles for the bazaar at the next meeting. Scrapbooks were handed in by Mrs. Albert Milne and these will be donated to the local hospital.

Mrs. Harry Richardson held the contest and Mrs. Alan Hughes was the winner. The 10-cent draw netted $1.30 and Mrs. Orval Schneider held the lucky number.

Through The Study Window

By REV. C. C. ARMSTRONG

The study window has a materialistic reality as well as a literary one. For years it has braved the winter blasts in a state of nakedness, without storm windows for protection. In fact, there were no storm windows upstairs. In order to remedy this unhappy situation the good ladies of the W.A. undertook to provide the windows "if the men" would put them on.

As I am both one of "the men" and the chief beneficiary, it seemed up to me to take the lead. This posed a bit of a problem. First of all these are upstairs windows, and a ladder would be required — a good long one. This was duly borrowed, set up and scaled, and the men, scaling a ladder is a fishy business. Apart from all theological aspects of the situation, I am more comfortable below ground than ascending heavenward. I also prefer devil's food to angel cake (this also apart from all theological considerations). In addition to this the men are only seventeen of them — come in no less than nine different sizes. To cut them and fit them on would require help, if they were not to be cut in regulation army sizes of too large and too small.

However, with the help of three good men and true, and with the promise of further help when needed, the windows have been cut and are now being painted. It has been a co-operative venture all the way, both by women and the men. We in the manse are very grateful and wish to thank all those who have helped in this undertaking. Due to their efforts
"Operation Storm Sash" is complete.

Several other items however are still unfinished business. The church requires a different musical instrument. On Sunday, Sept.
27th, there will be an opportunity to hear a Hallman organ in action, with a musical program to follow
the evening service in Knox.

More important than this is the unfinished business of Christian education in the Sunday School and in the mid-week groups. The Rally Day program will be observed on October 4th, marking the beginning of the winter quarter (October-December). By the first week in October all mid-week groups should be functioning. However, this is to be accomplished, two leaders for C.G.I.T. must be secured at once.

The leadership and training of this group, and of others, is "unfinished business" that is most important in the work of the Kingdom. Anyone who has had experience in C.G.I.T. work and wishes to serve in that group is asked to contact the minister at once. Mrs. Trev Morgan, former leader, will be glad to supply information and materials for the incoming leaders.

WEDDINGS

JOHNSON - BURROUGHS

In Metropolitan United Church, Edmonton, recently Miss Mary Josephine Burroughs, daughter of Mrs. Wesley J. Burroughs of Wetaskiwin, and the late Mr. Burroughs became the bride of Mr. Clayton Lloyd Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Johnson of Didsbury. Rev. John McKnight officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her mother, the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of satin brocade and net topped with a redingote of lace and net. Her fingertip veil of net and illusion lace was gathered softly to a bonnet of lace and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis centred with a mauve orchid.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Bruce Warren as matron of honor and Miss Beth Burroughs as bridesmaid. They wore lace gowns of bronze and Nile green and carried bouquets of cream gladioli and tea roses.

Mr. E. Richardson was best man and Mr. Michael E. Falby, Mr. Ivor

Williams and Mr. John Adam were the ushers.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the Cathayan, where parents of the bride and groom received with the bridal party. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Burroughs wore a gown of powder blue with navy accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink Sweetheart roses. Mrs. Johnson, mother of the groom, chose a navy ensemble with matching accessories. A gardenia surrounded with Sweetheart roses formed her corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left later on a wedding trip to Waterton Lakes and the United States. For traveling the bride wore a white linen suit with contrasting mauve accessories and an orchid corsage.

ANOTHER TRACTOR ACCIDENT BRINGS TOTAL TO 13

The farm tractor is a most dangerous implement and already this year it has caused at least 13 deaths in this province. Latest was a 35-year-old farmer of the Wostok district, northeast of Edmonton. Almost all of these accidents have resulted from the tractor overturning while being operated on a road or highway.

AND WE WILL EAT THE COWS

Some people say Canadians and Americans should eat up a lot more bread and help take care of the wheat surplus. They point to the European per capita consumption of bread. But Europeans eat less meat and eggs, etc., than we do.

And by eating meat we are actually consuming wheat and a lot more of it than we could directly. To produce one pound of meat, a hog or steer must be fed from four to five pounds of grain and the same would be approximately true for eggs and dairy products.

Few people in this modern age could stand knee-deep in bread and polish off 30 slices of it for their supper. But when they eat a fair sized steak they are getting rid of the equivalent in grain.

Let the cows eat the grain. And we will eat the cows.

25 PER CENT OF NATIONAL PRODUCTION EXPORTED

About 25 per cent of Canada's national production is exported and also 25 per cent of all agricultural production in Canada is exported. Agricultural products make up one-quarter of Canada's total exports.

Farmers Will Lose On Lack Of Storage

above columns
Farmers and grain elevator operators see no immediate solution to the problem of grain storage resulting from plugged elevators, continued good crops, and the uncertainty of international markets.
Only one thing is certain in an otherwise uncertain situation: This is that Alberta farmers, together with their counterparts in the rest of Western Canada, are likely to lose money this year.

"PERMANENT storage therefore remained, said grain elevator company officials, as the sole local solution."

NOW'S THE TIME TO ORDER YOUR BUTLER STEEL BUILDINGS

Protection for your grain is a vital, immediate need! But when you take steps to solve the immediate crisis, don't forget your valuable investment in equipment and machinery. That needs protection too! WEDDING

Westerdale United Church was the scene of a lovely evening candlelight wedding on September 11 at 7 p.m. when Paylis Rosella, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Jackson, became the bride of Mr. Alfred Richard Pihl, son of Mrs. Irene Wigley, before an altar decorated with gladioli and candles. Sweet peas and candles adorned the windows and organ.

Rev. C. C. Armstrong of Didsbury performed the ceremony, while Mr. Leonard Jones, grandfather of the bride, supplied the music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and looked charming in a beautiful white gown of balerina length lace over nylon tulle, accented by a lace bolero with tiny buttons and lily point sleeves, waist-length veil with scalloped crown trimmed with pearls, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

She was attended by her cousin, Miss Mavis Wigley of Edmonton, as maid of honor, who was attired in an ankle-length blue net over satin, with lace bolero, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations with matching headpiece.

The bridesmaid, Miss Greta Kershaw, wore a shell pink ankle-length gown of net over satin with brocade bolero and carried a bouquet of blue carnations with headpiece to match.

Flower girl was Sandra Laughton of Calgary, cousin of the groom, and she wore a yellow satin gown and carried yellow carnations with matching headpiece.

The groom was attended by Mr. Ken Laughton of Calgary and Mr. Robert Jackson, cousin of the bride. Ushers and candle-lighters were Mr. Jim Jackson and Mr. Arthur Jackson, cousins of the bride.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Ralph Jackson, aunt of the bride, sang "Because."

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 45 guests. The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake and vases of dahlias.

Mrs. L. Jones, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. A. Evans of Calgary, grandmother of the groom, poured tea and coffee.

Following the cutting of the wedding cake, the toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. C. C. Armstrong, to which the groom fittingly responded.

Later a wedding dance was held at Westerdale hall. The happy couple left by train on Monday for Debert, Nova Scotia, where they will take up residence.

Shipments of wheat out of the port of Churchill on Hudson Bay this year will reach 10,268,000 bushels. Already about half of this amount has been shipped.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all the nurses and friends, and Dr. Epp, for the kindness, help and all the comfort extended to me while in the Didsbury hospital.

MRS. ESTELLE BOLES

M.V.B.C. NEWS

Rev. and Mrs. Franklin L. Lusk arrived on the College campus on Sunday. With his wife and little daughter, Mr. Lusk had started from his home in Indiana on Tuesday and with but a few minor mishaps arrived with car and trailer to take up his residence in the newly furnished apartment. Mr. Lusk is an ordained minister in the United Missionary Church and will head the music department of the College this coming winter.

Beginning this week, Mr. Peter Waidin, vice-president of the College, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Lusk, will begin to tour churches of the conference in Alberta, presenting the Living Endowment plan as drawn up by the president of the College. Over this coming week-end, however, Miss Gladys Eby will speak in several of the churches in place of Mr. Waidin, who will return to his home in Calgary.

Miss Jeannette Neufeld was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts at a shower given by the ladies on Monday, Sept. 14. The bride-to-be was surprised and delighted, and received the good wishes of those present most graciously. Mrs. Gordon Neufeld and Mrs. D. M. Taylor, both hostesses, and Mrs. Harold Oke had charge of the luncheon served to the guests.

The roof of the main building has a new look now. Only a small portion is as yet unpainted, but Wayne Kagey is watching the weatherman closely and as soon as permission is granted by the unpredictable person, he will continue painting. A small section of the east side of the building has been painted already.

Mrs. Suder has moved into her new living quarters for the winter. The purchase of the Stroud home has made this possible. Arthur Eby and his family are now busy moving into their house vacated by Mrs. Suder. Soon every one will be settled and happy in their homes and school life will take on the usual peaceful and serene routine. That is, of course, when the students have all finished planning their rooms and settling down for study and hard work in their field of endeavor.

Have you listened to the radio program recently? It now comes on at 7:30 each Sunday morning. After October 1, Miss Florence Reist will take over the books and all contributions will be sent to her. Instead of Miss Gladys Eby. This program depends upon the goodwill of its listeners and it may be you before the end of this month, if you haven't already done so. Didsbury not only has a College, but it also has a radio program. Not many towns have that.
